April is
Sexual Assault Awareness Month

It's On Us Week 2018

Teal Tuesday!
11 a.m.-1 p.m. April 3
Wear teal all day!
Stop by the MU Student Center and show off your teal in support of Sexual Assault Awareness Month. Take the pledge, sign the banner and show your intolerance for power-based personal violence.

Dr. Dougherty Lecture
3 p.m. April 3
Come to Cornell Hall 11 to listen to Dr. Debbie S. Dougherty from the University of Missouri Department of Communication talk about bystander intervention and sexual aggression.

Teal Out Game
6:30 p.m. April 6
Wear your teal "It's on US" shirts and support Mizzou Baseball against Alabama at Taylor Stadium.
Stop by the tailgate outside of the stadium from 5:30 until the first pitch for free food!

Sexual Violence Professional Panels 6:30 p.m. April 3 & 10
RSVP Educators will host discussion panels with professionals who work directly with those affected by sexual violence, to explain processes and services available to our campus community. These events will be held in the RSVP Center (G216 MUSC).
- April 3: Medical & Mental Health Professionals Panel
- April 10: Legal Professionals Panel

Blurred Lines: A Second Look 6 p.m. April 12
Visit the Gaines/Oldham Black Culture Center on Virginia Ave. for an interactive program addressing biases and myths surrounding sexual assault in the Black community. This scenario-based event will directly confront misconceptions that are embedded in our community about what violence looks like and who is affected.

SAAM Movie Nights 6 p.m. April 5, 11 & 17
RSVP Educators and friends will be providing guided discussion after each film in this year's SAAM Movie Night line-up. All are welcome. Light snacks provided.
- April 5: Crime After Crime, RSVP Center (G216 MUSC)
- April 11: Flirting with Danger, Women's Center (G108 MUSC)
- April 17: GTFO, RSVP Center (G216 MUSC)

MU Council on Violence Against Women
12:30-2 p.m. April 19
All are welcome to attend the Spring MUCVAW Meeting to share thoughts and ideas about ways to make a difference and proactively address power-based personal violence on our campus and in our community. Have conversations with campus colleagues while listening to ways in which Mizzou has worked to change the culture around violence against women. Please e-mail rsvp@missouri.edu to register your attendance. Lunch is provided to the first 40 people who register. This event will be held in the Bresnanhan-Wright Classroom, inside the MizzouRec Center.

Denim Day All Day, with events from 10 a.m.-2 p.m. April 26
Denim Day urges people to wear denim as a visible sign of protest against sexual violence. It serves a statement that there is never an excuse for sexual violence following a 1998 decision by the Italian Supreme Court. Please wear jeans/denim all day and stop by the tabling event inside the MU Student Center from 10a-2p.

Take Back the Night 6 p.m. April 26
Co-hosted by STARS, the Mizzou community will march through campus to honor survivors’ voices, hold a vigil to remember victims, and speak out about personal experiences to shatter the silence around sexual and intimate partner violence. The march begins at Traditions Plaza. Rain site: The Shack, MUSC

For ADA accommodations or more information about RSVP events, contact the RSVP Center at RSVP@missouri.edu one week prior to the event.
